BOOKKEEPER SAFE HOUSE PROJECT

Kari Wood has served as the Bookkeeper for Safe House Project since 2019. Before joining the Safe House Project team, Kari worked for nine years as a Project Manager on several large government contracts for various agencies. Prior to that she worked in the administration field and special event management. In addition to her role as a bookkeeper, she is a military spouse and a mother of one. She is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and serves as the Vice President of her Officers Spouses Club. Kari holds a B.A. in Art History from San Diego State University. She also later obtained a Special Event Management Certification from the University of San Diego. Kari is honored to be part of the Safe House Project team. She is inspired by the strength of the survivors and feels grateful to be able to have the opportunity to use her gifts to help the vulnerable.
