Nigel "Legin" Anderson is a spoken word artist, gospel hip hop artist, podcaster and preacher who speaks about fatherlessness to forgiveness, as well as racial reconciliation and urban apologetics amongst other topics, and the hope of the gospel in his music. Through Expect Renaissance, his non-profit organization, Legin and fellow artists Sinai and Focus produced Safe House by RMM (2017), and all album proceeds went to help build a safe house in South Africa to protect children from sex trafficking. Nigel co-founded Safe House Project in 2017 and currently serves on the board.
