

THE PREGNANCY CONTINUUM

KEY STATISTICS ON THE REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH OF SURVIVORS OF SEX TRAFFICKING

90% of survivors experience at least one gynecological health issue. The average number is seven.

87% of female survivors report at least one pregnancy. 65% report two or more pregnancies.

77% of survivors had pregnancy problems while being trafficked. 35% continued to have pregnancy problems after trafficking.

Only 37% of all pregnancies experienced by survivors of trafficking result in a live birth.

35% of survivor pregnancies end in abortion, 55% of which are forced by a trafficker or the circumstances.

90% of survivors sought healthcare while being trafficked. 81% visited a hospital or emergency room.

Only 37% of survivors report receiving full prenatal care when pregnant during trafficking.

Only 13% of survivors agree that the medical professionals they saw delivered excellent care.